

Westborough Garden Club

Invites all interested in gardening to the following free events:

Welcoming Native Plants and Insects to Your Garden

- Master Gardener Rebecca Warner

Wednesday, February 28

Westborough Senior Center, 7 p.m.

- choosing beautiful plants to attract beneficial insects and pollinators
- the truth about native plants, the good citizens and the thugs
- leaf-eating insects, why the right balance helps your garden
- garden maintenance tricks to make your yard hospitable to the right insects

Comedy in the Garden - Neal Sanders

Wednesday, March 27

Westborough Senior Center, 7 p.m.

Neal will share wisdom and humor gained from his decades as a helpmate to his gardening spouse.

All about Delphiniums

- Master Gardener Rick Charnes

Wednesday, April 24

Westborough Senior Center, 7:15 p.m.

Rick will speak about his favorite flower in the garden, the neglected delphinium, "Queen of the Garden," including its propagation, cultivation and beauty!

Annual Plant Sale!

Saturday, May 18

Rain or Shine, Hastings Elementary School, 9-11:30 a.m.

Our much-anticipated annual plant sale, with healthy, inexpensive divisions from our own pampered gardens.